Rev. H. C. Robinson
Pastor. Park Church

Dear Brother! -

I did not have the pleasure of hearing your discourse yesterday on Swearing but I believe it should be brought out oftener, for even some Members of Church Societies swear, it is awful. the outlook is a fact that I have made use of. I would like to get more of them printed, for it would do good to have some read about them always.

I never had any one get mad at me for handing them one and ask them to read it. but have had them admit their wrong doing

Sincerely yours

Dear Madam;-

I inclose Waiver of Citation in the matter of the judicial settlement of the estate of Gurden H. Edgerton, which I wish you would sign and acknowledge before a Notary Public and return to me as soon as possible. Mrs. Paine, the administratrix, has finally succeeded in selling the land that was back belonging to the estate, and she is extremely anxious that this long drawn out matter finally be closed up and that she make a distribution of all the moneys belonging to the estate remaining in her hands as administratrix. By waiving the service of a citation it will enable us to close it up quicker and with less expense than it would to procure to issuance of a citation and get some one there to serve it, and besides the law would require us to wait at least thirty days longer than we will have to do if these waivers are properly signed, acknowledged and returned. I trust that you will co-operate with us in the matter, and I promise you that at the earliest possible moment after the waivers are received, Mrs. Paine will render her account and distribute all the funds remaining in her hands to the various parties entitled to the same. I wish you would also have Mrs. Robinson sign the inclosed waiver and acknowledge it at the same time for the reason that she being one of the heirs might be an interested party in the judicial settlement, and to avoid any delays I think it advisable that she also sign the inclosed waiver. Trusting that you will be able to attend to this very shortly and return it to me, I am

My dear Mr Robinson

I want to thank you for coming to us in our sorrow. and for the comforting words you spoke at my dear Mothers funeral

I hope you will accept this small remuneration, and for your kindness, for nothing can repay you for that: but for taking so much of your time

Very Sincerely
